FCC ANNOUNCES PANELISTS FOR SEPTEMBER 30, 2013, WORKSHOP ON ISSUES SURROUNDING THE REASSIGNMENT OF TV STATIONS AFTER THE INCENTIVE AUCTION

GN Docket No. 12-268

The Federal Communications Commission (FCC) announces the agenda and panelists for its September 30, 2013, workshop on issues related to the reassignment of television stations after the incentive auction.¹ The workshop, which will be held as part of the Learn Everything About Reverse Auctions Now Program (LEARN), will consist of two panels of experts. The first panel will focus on the costs associated with channel reassignment following the incentive auction. The second panel will discuss strategies to promote coordination during the transition, and potential ways to reduce the costs broadcasters may incur as a result of channel reassignment. Today the FCC also released a Public Notice seeking comment on a Catalog of Eligible Expenses that lists specific categories of costs likely to result from channel reassignment, and potential cost reduction strategies, both of which will also be discussed during the workshop.²

The workshop will be held from 10:00 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. EST in the Commission Meeting Room at the FCC's headquarters in Washington, D.C. It is free and open to the public, with seating available on a first-come, first-served basis. The session will be broadcast live over the Internet at <http://www.fcc.gov/live>. Questions from the Internet audience can be submitted anonymously via email to learn@fcc.gov and via Twitter using the hashtag, #fcclive. Additional information about the LEARN Program is available at <http://www.fcc.gov/learnprogram>.
